Many of the respondents have the opinion that faculty members are excellent at handling the subjects they are allotted. But few of them have the opinion that faculty members are very poor or poor in the criteria depth in the subject.	Spent more time mastering the subjects by referring to original textbooks. Seeking help from colleagues. Faculty are asked to concentrate more on academic publications, paper presentations, etc. To Discuss current affairs in the classroom related to the particular subjects they are handling. Decided to give the same paper to the faculty that they handled last year.	Next semester	Highly recommended for continuous appraisal and its timely evaluation so as to ensure quality among the faculty, students and in the institution
2	Doubt Clearance	The majority of the respondents have the opinion that the faculty members are very good or good at clearing doubts. Most of them have the opinion the faculties are excellent in this criterion. Few of them respond that faculties are poor or very poor at clearing doubts.	Encourage more doubts on the part of students. Concentrate on timely clarification of doubts. Keep in touch with students so that they feel free to approach their facilitators. Maintain a friendly approach with students at a respectable distance.	From the very next day onwards.
3	Language	The majority of respondents have the opinion that faculty members are very good or good at maintaining the language culture. Some of them responded that the faculties have excellent communication skills. Only a few of them have the opinion that faculties are lacking the skill.	Increase the ratio of the medium of instruction as English: Malayalam to 90:10. Improve the language by reading Newspapers, Journals, Magazines, etc. Promote the language culture on the campus by making the entire communication to the students in English.	With immediate effect from the next class onwards.
4	Presentation	The majority of the respondents have the opinion that the faculty members have very good presentation skills. Most of them have the opinion that faculties are excellent in presentation skills. Few of them have the opinion that the faculty members do not have presentation skills.	Promote at least one Faculty presentation in a semester. Faculty members are asked to participate and present papers in national and international seminars.	Next semester
5	Punctuality	The majority of the respondents rated faculty members are excellent, very good, or good at time management. Only a few of them have the opinion that faculties are poor in keeping time.	Faculty are asked to enter the class at least two minutes before the bell. Encouraging faculty to take extra classes to complete the syllabus on time. Faculty members must available in the college as and when required.	With immediate effect from the next working day onwards.
